

Enrolment information for Incoming students

Incoming students are linked, either to the ETSEIB Incoming Mobility programme (Exchange non-double degree students) or to a specific ETSEIB master's degree (Double degree students).

(ETSEIB Incoming Mobility programme have to enroll between 15-30 ECTS at the UPC in each semester).

It is not possible to carry out subjects of the other UPC schools different than ETSEIB.

The academic course is structured in two periods, Autumn and Spring semester. Therefore, there are two periods of enrolment during the academic year: in September (Autumn semester) and in February (Spring semester). Both enrolments are online through e-Secretaria.

Before enrolment

1. Check that your insurance document is validated:
e-Secretaria/Input document
2. If applicable, check that your registered project (Master's Thesis or Research Assignment) is validated by your tutor:
e-Secretaria/New Project Registration
3. Select your courses with the Timetables planner (see image page 3):
<https://estudis.etseib.upc.edu/en/timetable/>

Select courses and groups that match those in your ETSEIB learning agreement, as these are the available courses for your enrolment:

- Check Type of class: Theory (T), Lab (L) or Practices (P)
Lab (L) and Practices (P) have mandatory attendance

- Check Language of instruction: Catalan (CAT), Spanish (CAST) or English (ENG)

It is advisable to view different groups for each course before making your final decision

- Check exam dates

Exams dates are fixed and cannot be changed. Exams require mandatory on-site attendance.

IMPORTANT! During the Welcome Sessions you will learn how to organise your timetable and deal with overlapping courses/groups.

4. Check exact time of your enrolment:
e-Secretaria/Enrolment (one or two days before enrolment date)

What

Mandatory workload is of 15-30 ECTS per semester.
