For more information, please check the prices for UPC Master’s degree: https://www.upc.edu/en/masters/fees-grants
Surcharge for non-resident foreign students

A surcharge will apply to non-resident foreign students, if they are not nationals of EU member states. A coefficient of 1.5 applies to the ordinary price of the master.

This surcharge is not applicable in the following documented situations:

1. Students with nationality from a European Union country. It is necessary to attach original and copy of a valid passport.
2. Foreign students from other countries who can prove permanent residence in Spain for more than 5 years, by presenting the corresponding certificate issued by the Government Delegation.

Scholarships

As a student of the master's degree, you have access to the MECD scholarships that, depending on your income and academic performance, can cover at least the credits enrolled for the first time. Additionally, and depending on the income, more financial aid can be obtained (residence or salary scholarship).

https://www.upc.edu/en/masters/fees-grants

UPC students can request other scholarships granted by the university during their studies.

(*) IMPORTANT (only for students who have completed their bachelor degree at any UPC School)

To finish your admission, remember to review your undergraduate academic record and check the following:

1. If you have already done an international mobility, check that your transcript of records has arrived at your Academic Secretary, that there is the academic recognition, and that they appear in your academic record.

2. If you have done an internship, check that your recognition appears in your academic record.

3. That you have accredited your required English level and/or that it is recorded in your academic record.

4. Finally, revise that your academic record says “TITULAT”. If this information is not included, you will have to go to your Academic Secretary in order to make the necessary actions and close your file.

If you do not meet these requirements, you will not be able to enrol in the master.
